Confirmed. Or it could be dated in time for Hogwarts' School of Wizardry and Witchcraft – you never know with Muggles.

Thanks for the quick response on this Ken. I noticed the date on the form is Oct. 32. I'm assuming it's a typo and should read Oct. 21. Can you please confirm that? No need for a new signed form if you can confirm via email that the date should read Oct. 21.

Thanks,
Kris

Good Morning Ken,

As you know, the settlement between SRC and EPA is currently out for public comment. The 30-day public comment period ends on November 2, and the current consent for access form expires on October 31. I'm requesting that your client sign one more consent for access form to cover the month of November. This should get us through the end of the public comment period and the time needed for EPA and DOJ to respond to the comments. Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns about this.

Thanks,
Kris
